Norwegian Maritime Authority

Statement concerning guarantee for payment of expenses incurred at detention of foreign ships in Norwegian ports.

With reference to § 31-2 in Regulations of 2 February 1996 No. 115 concerning collection of fees to the Treasury for surveys, issue of certificates etc. carried out pursuant to the Act of 16 February 2007 No.9 (the Ship Safety and Security Act). The owner of a foreign ship detained in a Norwegian port is required to cover all expenses incurred in connection with the detention.

The detention will not be lifted until the owner, agent or representative has guaranteed that the expenses incurred by the Norwegian Maritime Authority will be covered.

Generally, this is ensured by the agent issuing a bank guarantee on behalf of the owner of the ship.

Statement: (To be used when a bank guarantee cannot be presented) *)

The undersigned, having the required authorisation from the ship's owner, hereby confirm that all expenses incurred by the Norwegian Maritime Authority which are related to inspections of the below named ship in connection with the detention, will be covered.
